CHRISTMAS SNOW

The night before Christmas

'Twas quiet all around;

'Twas quiet on the hills

'And quiet on the ground;

'Twas quiet up above,

And quiet down below;

And the quiet was the quietness

of softly falling snow.

HOLIDAY IDEAS

1. Homegrown herbs in corked glass bottles make wonderful hostess gifts or stocking stuffers.
2. Decorate an outdoor tree with food that birds can feed off. Saltines, popcorn, foil cups filled with sunflower seeds, and fruit cake are a few ideas.
3. Flowery, woodsy, or spicy sachets are always sweet gifts -- especially when you make them yourself. Just sew mini "pillowcases" from scraps of fabric, then fill with potpourri..
4. Remember your pets and buy them a present too.

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS:

Dear Colonelettes:

The holiday season is fast approaching. It is a time of special greetings to those we know and love. I would like for all members to keep this Spirit of Christmas within their hearts for all of the New Year. A cheery word to someone always lifts that person to a different level and the joy that comes with our greeting makes life more enjoyable.

We had a nice meeting last month and the program that is being planned for this December is different and all that attend will be glad they came. Also, keep in mind our gift exchange and ham give-away. I am pleased with all of the work being done by each of the committees.

Closing with a Christmas greeting that is just as new each year.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR
